PRINCIPAL MADDOX RESIGNS. Elected Head of Large School in St. Louis at Salary of $3,500.

John J. Maddox tendered his resignation as principal of the Windham High school at a special meeting of the school committee Wednesday evening. The resignation was received with deep regret by the members of the board, as Mr. Maddox during his connection with the school has brought the standard and discipline up to a high grade.

high grade.

Mr. Maddox did not definitely decide upon resigning until he received the following telegram at 6 o'clock Wednesday evening: St. Louis, Mo. The board of education has unanimously appointed you principal of the Blow school. Signed, C. G. Rathmann, Asst.

It is understood that the school is one of the best in St. Louis and that the salary for the first year is $3,500, with fine prospects for advancements.

Mr. Maddox is a young man who has won a warm place in the hearts of the citizens of the city of Willimantic during his nearly three years' stay here. NEW LONDON WINS. Score 9 to 3 in Game on Wednesday Afternoon. The Whalers took a game from Dunn's Coits on Windham field Wednesday afternoon before an enthusi-astic crowd of about 300 with the as-sistance of Umpire Lingdins, who was decidedly on the blink at times. decidedly on the blink at times.

The play of both nines was very fair aside from a couple of innings when costly errors proved bad. Wallace was poorly supported early in the game and toward the last seemed to go to pieces himself, as the visiting batsmen got six clean hits off him in the eleventh session, which coupled with two bad errors proved his Waterloo and ended all of Willimantic's hopes.

Up to that fatal inning Wallace had and ended all of Willimantic's hopes.

Up to that fatal inning Wallace had the batsmen well under control, allowing but five scattered hits, two in the second, two in the fourth and one in the tenth. Phillips pitched well but O'Mara drove the ball over the center field fence with two on bases and was only allowed two bases by Ump Liggins, although the hit was a homer according to ground rules, and the game would have been won for Willimantic in that inning, the third, as three runs would have counted.

Features of the game were the fast fielding of Sullivan in left field for Willimantic, Burns' work at second for New London and Nasher's, Reiger's, Nealon's and Campion's hitting, Shaun Sullivan also caught the crowd when he slid home on James Nichols' out at first after he had driven a fast deep one to Nasher at short. The dust levelers, one of the branches of the street cleaning department, were at work again Wednesday on the block parement on Main street, leveling off the dirt and spreading same to a more uniform consistency.

Many of the tarpayers and citizens of the city are much amused at this method of attempting to clean the pavement and have been heard to express some forcible comments. The more feasible plan for cleaning the street, particularly that portion that is paved, to turn the hose upon it and apply a liberal douche of city water from the convenient hydrants. The entire street could then be cleaned as clean as a whistle and in less than one-bird the time and consequently at a greatly reduced expense. This is a question that should be given serious and immediate attention and will mean a substantial saving to the city when properly solved.

12-Year-Old Boy Missing. Joseph Patras, aged 12, who lives at 54 Stone row, has not been seen about the city since Thesday noon. It was rumored that he was drowned in the river, but that has practically been disproved as it has been learned that a sum of money, a dollar and some change, was missed from his home when a search was made for some trace of the lad.

It is thought that the youngster took the money and has left town. He has attended St. Joseph's parochial school and the Mother Superior reports to the authorities that he has not been of Milford Woman to $12,000 Estate. Mrs. Winnie Miller, who lives in Milford, is to come into possession of an estate somewhat in excess of $12,-000 in value, if a decision filed by Judge Burpee in the superior court is not upset by the supereme court, where, it is believed, the case will be taken by the other claimants. Mrs.

Miller, however, has wen an important point in the case under Judge Burpee's decision.

Mrs. Mary M. Burnham, a resident of South Windsor, died there in 1889.

Some years before she died she executed a will and in the will she created. cuted a will and in the will she created a trust estate for the benefit of her son Roland F. Burnham. The will provided that on the death of Roland the estate remaining should go to his "lawful" child or children. Mr. Burnham never had any children born to him, but several years ago, when Mrs. Miller was a child, he took her in legal adoption. Mr. Burnham died early this year and then it came time to dis-tribue the estate in which he had a life interest. There were no relatives of Mr. Burn-ham on his father's side, but on his mother's side there were three of her nieces and one nephew living. The nephew was Edwin C. Hale of East Hartford, and the nieces were Mrs. Effic A. Mix of Bridgeport, Edith A. Northrop of Lynn Mass. and Mrs. Emma A. Reeves of New Haven. They made claim for the estate. Mrs. Miller also made claim, and she filed an answer seiting up that she was the "legal" child of Mr. Burnham, and as such she was entitled to the whole of the estate.

The other claimants conceded that The other claimants conceded that Mrs. Miller was the "legal" child but that she was not the "lawful" child as the word was used in the will, and that consequently she could not share in the estate.

Judge Burpee says:

"The first reason of demurrer is that an adopted child is not a 'lawful' child' within the meaning of the will under consideration. The statute relating to adoption uses the words 'legal child.' but I think the terms should-be regarded as synonymous. Moreover, the statute provides that the person adopting the child 'shall become its legal parent, with all the rights and duties between them of a legitimate parent and child.' The testatrix evidently intended to designate any person that the law would recognize as the child of her son. " Defendant claims and it would be enough for her to state that by reason of adoption she became the legal child of the in the estate. tion she became the legal child of the testatrix's son. I think she does so sufficiently for the purpose of plead-ing. What may happen when she at-tempts to prove this allegation is quite another matter."

Wharf Rats Kill Chicks-Local Clerks Ready to Defeat Baltic-Soldiers' Monument Fund Increased $25.

Several borough chicken raisers have over a hundred, with numerous lots of 25 and 50. All the raisers have hard luck stories to tell. The most discouraging comes from Fred Gilbert. He had twenty buff Brahma chicks several weeks old, all vigorous fine birds. One and sometimes two were missed each day. No trace of the marauder could be found. Finally in less than two weeks all were gone. Mr. Gilbert had a number of bags of cement nearby. Shortly after the disappearance of the chicks he had occasion to move them. A wharf rat's nest was found under-neath with six little rats in it, and nearby were the twenty chicks, each with its throat torn open, whence the blood had been sucked. Otherwise their bodies were unharmed.

Rich Men in the Country.

Meivin O. Adams has told the East Bridgewater board of trade that he is not in favor of the movement of rich men from the cities to the country towns, for it means the acquirement by them, he said, of thousands of acres of land for estates. It is going to leave us, in the long run, like some of the rural districts of England meters of the old-fashioned country we find about New England. There may be something in this idea, though we fancy Mr. Adams is unduly alarmed if he thinks that any proportionately-large area of the rural regions will meet this fate. If the argument is good for anything however, it is good as a reason why rich men should own real estate in neither country nor city; and we are not sure but it is an argument against the existence of rich men Melvin O. Adams has told the East ment against the existence of rich men at all.—New Bedford Standard.
